VOL. IV. NO. 164.

CHICAGO, WEDNESDAY, JULY 13, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

W. OVERTON'S QUICKSTEP STAKES.

The Quickstep Stakes failed to bring together at Washington Park as many people as some other of the fixtures of the meeting and only a fair crowd battled with the twenty-one book-makers that had "cut in" for two days. The weather was perfect and the track, as usual, fast. The Quickstep Stakes, worth $2260 to the winner, had an added starter from the stable of John Huffman in May Droit, whose price was always as long as 25 to 1.

W. Overton, going to the post at 6 to 5, landed the money by sheer gameness, lugging home his 125 pounds the penalty telling fearfully, as, from the three-sixteenths post in the home stretch to the last hundred yards Tommy Burns was burning him up with whip and spur. There was quite a delay at the post, and when the flag fell Jolly Roger, Lobos and May Droit might as well have been in the barn, the trio being open daylight behind the others, "off in a bunch." Ailyar shot to the front, W. Overton being second. As the last turn was made Black Venus joined the leaders and at the bleaching boards the three were lapped on and all under the whip—so that no one could call the winner. Luca here also looked to have a chance. W. Overton finally wore down the others. It was as good as 5 to 1 against Ailyar for the place. The extra seven pounds stopped Black Venus.

Mazo was indulged with the lead in the second race. White Frost lying second up the backstretch, where Hindoonet was third, Miss Gussie and Candleblack running side by side still further away. Rounding into the home stretch the last named pair came on, Miss Gussie driving, and as Mazo soon stopped, they and Gardner's mare had the race to themselves. Barrett, on the favorite, was loafing at the last furlong pole, where Clawson, on Candleblack, being sure of the place, set out after first money, and raced to the saddle-skirts of White Frost. Barrett, with one swing of the whip, got the favorite going again, and she won handily from Candleblack. Miss Gussie third and the others pulled up.

A grand price was the 3 to 2 obtainable against Floronso, a horse that, bar accident, could not lose. Clawson trailed the first quarter, then went from last to first in the next three-eighths and from there on the result was never in doubt, Floronso winning pulled up. Don Orsino was as easily second, although he had been cut off on the upper turn. The other starters were completely outclassed.

Macy, a 1 to 3 shot, laid behind Traverser to the home stretch, then passed Bradley's horse and won easily from The Manxman, who beat Traverser in a drive, paying 1 to 3 for place. Macy swerved slightly at the turn for home, but did little or no damage.

The complexion of the betting ring was practically unchanged although George North laid off and Harry Laudeman "cut in." There were three field books.

It was White Frost's first start of the year. "Frisco" parleyed a two dollar bill up to $138 on the first four races.

It was the banner day of the meeting for favorite players—all five first choices winning.

Clawson and two of his jockey friends were arrested for "scorching" Monday night.

L. P. Tarleton, prominent in the south as a society man and presiding judge at Latonia, was at the track. He said that his visit to Chicago was mainly in the interest of yearling sales at the Stock Yards.

Charley Walter, known to all racegoers for his geniality, is missed from Washington Park for the first time in its existence. His friends will learn with regret that Mr. Walter is seriously ill.

W. McGuigan sold two of his horses—Bannockburn and Ben Hadad—and also Graziella at auction in the paddock. McGuigan is a handy auctioneer. George Murphy, who intends to race in Mexico, got Ben Hadad for $3,600. There was considerable excitement when Bannockburn was led into the ring, and lively bidding was looked for. Pat Dunne, however, cycloned the ring with a pat offer of $5,000. It got the colt. A. S. Bishop made one bid of $600 and got Graziella.

J. B. Allen, "one of the boys" and somewhat of a plunger on the horses, bet $1000 on White Frost at 7 to 10 with Peter Riley.

L. A. Legg and other horsemen bet on Candleblack "both ways," as the colt in his work had run Floronso close.

After the bell had been rung by the judges, indicative of the fact that all was "O.K." with the last race and the result posted, Jockey Slack went into the judges stand. Instantly a crowd gathered around. For twenty minutes a throng of curious and interested people waited, while Jockeys Thorpe and Burns were interviewed by the judges. Finally the presiding official announced "horses placed as they finished." J. W. Kelsey said that each of the three jockeys told a different tale and that the official timer declared there had been no interference calculated to change the result.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Sydney Paget and W. C. Whitney, for whom he is currently supposed to be acting, have been the heroes of several remarkable stories since they became identified with racing interests last fall, until now, when a horse shows anything approaching stake class, the first thing one hears is that the promising animal is likely to become the property of Sydney Paget. Of course, where there is so much smoke one must expect a little fire, and Mr. Paget is undoubtedly strengthening his stably judiciously. His purchase of Plaudit the other day for a price reported to be $25,000 was regarded as a plucky move in the right direction. It is pretty generally admitted that, outside of Hamburg, Plaudit is the best three-year-old in training, and that with his many engagements he stands a fair chance of winning himself out. Mr. Paget had previously demonstrated his judgment by purchasing the star two-year-old Jean Beraud, and now it is said that he has offered $10,000 to P. J. Dwyer for the two-year-old colt Miller, by Hindoo—Bonnie Gal. In fact the deal was practically completed on Saturday subject to a veterinary examination of the colt. What Mr. Paget wants with Miller while he has a flyer like Jean Beraud in his stable is explained by the fact that the latter is not engaged in the Futurity, while Miller is eligible to start for that coveted classic. The Bonnie Gal colt gets in light under the conditions, as he has not earned any penalties, and, as he possesses an undoubted turn of speed, with indications of staying qualities, the proposed investment might prove a good one for Mr. Paget.—New York Sun.

Speaking of the approaching Saratoga meeting, the Sun says: "The exodus for Saratoga has fairly set in, and by the time the meeting opens, on July 28, there should be a great gathering of thoroughbreds at Horse Haven. Whether they are going there to recuperate or to race is a question which depends on developments, but hopes are entertained that the fields will be on a much more liberal scale than heretofore, as the ailing list so far is unusually small. The book provides for twenty-seven racing days, with a liberal sprinkling of stake events. The meeting will be signalized as a grand reunion between the western and eastern elements and by the reappearance in the saddle of Tod Sloan, who is now convalescing satisfactorily in the mountains. The noted lightweight will have plenty of mounts, as the Fleischmann stable will be largely represented at the Springs. There is a story current to the effect that this will be Sloan's last season in the Fleischmann colors, as he is likely to sign with Sydney Paget for next year, but it is put down as one of the many vague rumors which are bandied around the paddock on almost every race day.

The outcome of the electric saddle case is thus set forth in the Cincinnati Commercial-Tribune of Wednesday: "The Latonia judges yesterday ruled off Arthur Duffy, C. H. Dieboll and W. B. Churcher, an electrician doing business at 2131 Fulton avenue, this city, for attempting to persuade Jockey Charles Aker to use an electric saddle at various times. Aker was also released from his contract with Duffy. A week ago Aker appeared before the Latonia judges and asked that he be released from his contract with Duffy, as the latter's trainer (Dieboll) wanted him to use an electric saddle on horses he had been engaged to ride. Aker also claimed that Duffy was aware of Dieboll's actions. Dieboll acknowledged that he was guilty of trying to get Aker to use the saddle, but said that Duffy did not have anything to do with it. The judges summoned Duffy to appear before them and give his side of the case. Duffy did not show up, but sent a doctor's certificate to prove that he was ill at his home in Norwood. The case remained opened until yesterday, when the judges rendered a decision ruling Duffy, Dieboll and Churcher off. It is claimed Churcher made the electric battery to be used in the saddle. Duffy's two horses, Teulon and Mike Mullen, were also ruled off. The former is a three-year-old by Teuton—Coriana, and the latter a two-year by Onondaga—Golden Reel, a full brother to Rastus. Mike Mullen has never started."

The entries to the Annual Champion Stake to be run at Sheepshead Bay in 1900 are due July 15. The Annual Champion is a $25,000 stake for 3-year-olds and upward, and is to be run during the autumn meeting of the Coney Island Jockey Club. The guaranteed cash value of the stake is $25,000, of which $20,000 goes to the winner, $2,000 to the second horse, $750 to the third horse, $1,000 to the owner of the winner at the time of entry, $500 to the owner of the second horse at the time of entry, and $500 to the trainer of the winner at the time of the race. Three-year-olds are to carry 116 pounds, four-year-olds 130 pounds, five-year-olds and upwards 131 pounds. Sex and gelding allowances. Winners of any race (handicaps when carrying less than weight for age,) of the value of $7,000, to carry three pounds extra; of two such races or one of $15,000, seven pounds extra. Two miles and a quarter.

THE EASTON SALE TONIGHT.

Tonight in the Union Stock Yards sales ring, Mr. Wm. Easton will conduct a highly important sale of thoroughbred yearlings. Many real gems of high breeding are to be disposed of and there is no doubt that bargains of great worth will go to lucky purchasers.

The half sister to the fleet Traverser that is to be sold at the Union Stock Yards tonight is said to resemble the colt to a marked degree and will probably be the object of keen competition. But there are others that will commend themselves to the horsemen when they take stock of about the best lot of yearlings ever sent to Chicago for sale.

WILL RACE AT HAWTHORNE.

Mr. Harry Kuhl, secretary of the Chicago Racing Association, announces that the board of directors of that organization has notified him that racing will begin over the Hawthorne racetrack Monday, July 25, and that he has been directed to at once set about the work of preparing a racing program.

TO RACE AT NEWPORT.

There has been some doubt as to whether there would be racing over any of the Cincinnati tracks except Latonia next autumn, but from the following, taken from the Commercial-Tribune of Tuesday, it appears that the doubt has been cleared away so far as the Newport track is concerned:

"Frank Fowler, the manager of the Newport race track, yesterday announced that the Queen City Jockey Club would give a fall meeting. The association will give a twenty-four day meeting, beginning September 3 and closing September 30, the day before the fall meeting at Latonia opens. Mr. Fowler stated yesterday that these were the dates he had selected, and unless something unexpected happens they will be adhered to strictly. Mr. Fowler's announcement will be grateful news to a large number of horsemen who at present have their stables at local tracks, and they will be able to lay their plans accordingly.

"The officials of the coming meeting will be the same as those that were seen here this spring, with the exception of one of the judges. L. P. Tarleton and Henry Queen will have as their associate Mr. Jackson Smith, the clever division passenger agent of the Louisville & Nashville Railroad. Mr. Smith was offered the position last night and accepted it. It is safe to predict that Mr. Smith will make as good a racing official as he is a railroad man. "Curly" Brown, the great starter, will handle the flag as usual, and he is the right man in the right place.

"The Newport track, as it stands right now, is a greatly improved piece of property. Since the close of the spring meeting a force of men has been at work constantly adding to the natural beauties of the course. A work track on the inside of the regulation mile course is being constructed, and Mr. Fowler expects to have it completed before the opening of the fall meeting. The fence on the back stretch has been moved back and the track widened. Back of the grand stand and facing the Licking River a lot of ground has been filled in and the railroad tracks moved out further. This has admitted of a handsome carriage road, which runs to a point near the stables. Other improvements have been made, and the Newport track today is one of the best in the West.

"Secretary Gratz Hanly will issue Newport's program book the latter part of next month. Messrs. Fowler and Hanly have the promise of a number of big stables now racing at Washington Park and St. Louis to come to the Newport meeting. Everything at present points to a big meeting at the Newport track this fall."

Winner—Br. f. 4, by Iroquois—Wildflower.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. The two leaders were driving hard; third cleverly. White Frost was the class of the field. She had to do her best to win. Barrett was at work on her the entire length of the stretch. Candleblack ran a cracking good race. He moved up fast on the far turn and looked very dangerous at the eighth pole. This is a good colt and in condition right now. He should win at once. Miss Gusse was tangled up at the start. With clear sailing she would have been much closer up. Mazo showed speed for about five and a half furlongs. He was out to the last ounce and swerving at the finish. Hindoonet and Hampden were beaten off all the way.
Scratched—Charley Christy, 119.

Post 19 minutes. Start fair. Won driving hard; second and third also under keen pressure. W. Overton again showed his class and staying qualities. He is a colt of great quality. Burns rode him hard from the three furlong point home. An eighth out it looked as though he could never catch Alyar. The latter got away well and ran a cracking good race. He hadn't class enough and weakened at the end. Martin punished him severely in the closing drive. Black Venus was running fast at the finish. She was close to the rails all the way and was well handled. Had the race been five furlongs she would have beaten Alyar. Lobos, heavily played, was off poorly and showed no speed. He did not race to his notch. Toluca ran only a fair race. She seems to like weight off. Olintus has evidently gone back.
Scratched—Gold Fox, 118; Cathedral, 121; Bill Anthony, 111.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Fonso—Florence E.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won under a stout pull; second eased a trifle after an early drive. Third and fourth driving hard. Floronso was much the best. He ran around his field and was always well in hand. He is good and has some class. Don Orsino ran his race. He is not good enough to beat Floronso. Official is an honest colt. Dorothy III ran her race, too. This company was too fast for her. Roger B finished strong.
Scratched—Kris Kringle, 90; Morte Fonse, 107.

Winner—Br. c. 4, by Hindoo—Alga.
Off at first break to a good start. Won easily at the end; the other two were driving. Macy was the best. He had to be hard driven, though, at the head of the stretch to get clear. The colt is getting cunning and bears in some from the whip. He came very near being disqualified. He and Traverser swung wide enough in the stretch to give The Manxman room to get through on the inside. When straightened the three were about on even terms. Burns used his whip on Macy. The colt bore in and it looked as though he sharply interfered with Traverser. The latter, in turn, bumped The Manxman. Slack, who rode Traverser, made a claim of foul. He was slow in making the claim, and before giving it notice the judges announced the result. After hearing Slack's story Thorpe was sent for. He also claimed that Macy interfered with Traverser. A long consultation was held, but the judges decided to let the race go as the horses finished. Traverser is a bad horse and always darts to the rail. He may have been the direct cause of the interference. The Manxman was nicely ridden and ran an extraordinarily good race.
Scratched—Floronso, 100; The Devil, 100.

When Hothersall hit her with the whip at the three-sixteenths pole she swerved and crossed H. S. Tobacco, but did not stop him. Montgomery swerved to the fence when McIntyre hit him with the whip. He has been nerved and is a bad proposition over a hard track.

Winner—B. m, 6, by Hayden Edwards—Virgie Wright.

Start good. Won easily. Campania was perfectly handled and lucky. She is fond of light weight, was the best and ran in her best form. Her Own appeared to be galloping the first three-quarters, but failed to respond when challenged in the stretch; still, she ran well. Prince Auckland was a good horse all through, but had no chance with his jockey. Hanlon appeared driving throughout, but came strong and game at the end. Tanis is fast, but belongs among the cheapest. Alarum is still short. He inclines to mud. Double Quick is of no earthly account at present.

Scratched—Rotterdam, 108.

Overweights—Tanis, 1 pound; Gun Metal, 2; Double Quick, 1.

Winner—Ch. c, by Hanover—Nellie C.

Start fair. Won driving. Hurricane was lucky, well handled, and saved ground throughout. Goblin is a good looker and came very strong at the end. Miles was lucky and well handled, too. He is not much to the eye, but fast. He swerved all over the track at the end and will win soon, but among cheaper ones. Cupid got away badly, took the long route and got an atrocious ride. He is a grand looker and stayer. Watch him. La Penitente was practically left at the start; was coming fastest of all at the end and ran a really good race. Was easily the best. Mail Bag was short. Savory is not much. High Born was off badly. Perfume is on the small order and belongs in lower class. Somers ran well and was pulled up in the last sixteenth. Watch him. Rosebed fell dead from heart disease.

Scratched—Belle of H., 109.

Overweights—La Penitente, 2 pounds.
